How to do Tharpanam
Source: Sathguru Venkataraman's Siddha Writings published in the 1980s and 1990s in his books and monthly magazine.

Step 1: Place three strips of Darbha grass on the plate parallel to each other

Step 2: Place three more strips each perpendicular to the previous set.

This creates a grid with 12 tips. Each tip represents a departed ancestor. Thus the 12 tips represent 12 of your departed ancestors. Refer to www.Agasthiar.Org for more details.

Step 3: Place sesame seeds on the palm of your right hand. Hold the water vessel in your left hand. Chanting the tharpana mantras (refer to Agasthiar.Org) and the appropriate ancestor's name, pour water on the sesame seeds in your palm while tilting your right hand such that both the sesame seeds and water fall on one of the tips of a darbha grass strip. The water should flow out of the gap between the right thumb and the right index finger as shown in the figure above.
Repeat this three times for each ancestor.

Repeat Step 3 on all 12 tips thus covering all 12 ancestors.

3 times per ancestor and 12 ancestors make a total of $3 \times 12 = 36$ repetitions of Step 3.

This completes the pitru tharpanam procedure. After this, do karunya tharpanam. Refer to Agasthiar.Org for details on what to do with the water, sesame seeds and darbha grass that you have used in this ceremony.
